Legal forms such as C, E-1, E-2, F, H and I play a crucial role in the use of the concession rate in the context of interstate transactions. After long tint and crying, Punjab Govt has issued a no notice. GSR.33/CA.74/1956/S.13/Amd(17)/2012 of 04-07-2012 under which statutory forms are available via online system,. It's a matter of great appreciation that govt. of Punjab has taken a wonderful step by issuing a notice that will remove the barriers in free trade between states as the Punjab dealers were facing problems for the last so many years in getting the form. Consequences of Application and method of obtaining declaration forms: By amending and replacing Rule 7 in the Central Sales Tax (Punjab Rules 1957), dealers of the State of Punjab can take advantage of the advantage of online online and for obtaining these forms, the Annexes in the form VAT-18 and VAT-19 relating to the sale and purchase under the 1956 Central Sales Tax Act issued in addition to the declarations shall be considered as an application for the obtaining of the forms; the form shall be generated electronically by the Excise and Taxation Section in a designated branch and the same form shall be downloaded within 60 days of the submission of the monthly or quarterly declaration and copies of those statutory forms duly declared by the excise official shall be sent to the dealer concerned within 30 days of the electronic downloading of those forms. Fees: A fee of 50 Paise per declaration is charged in cash or treasury confirmations. Time limit for the retention of the counter-file of statutory forms: The counter-record of the declaration of statutory forms such as C, E-1, E-2, F, H, I shall be kept by registered dealers for the period 6 years after the end of the year to which the said form relates. In case of closure and cancellation: If the dealer closes his business or his registration is cancelled, he is required to file the last last declaration in order to obtain the balance statement. If forms are lost during transport or destroyed, damaged If legal forms are lost during transport or destroyed or damaged, the dealer concerned will send a public notice in the national press and file FIR in the nearest police station regarding lost, destruction or damage of the forms and the intimation for the same is provided to the Excise & Taxation Officer of Area , together with a copy of the first information report and the cutting of news paper. Surrender of counter-files in the event of loss, destroyed or damaged Statutory forms The registered dealer is obliged to surrender the counter films of the said forms to the official concerned excise duty & taxes and in return such new forms may be obtained which are replaced by the forms which have been declared obsolete and invalid. In any event, if it is not possible to generate the forms electronically, the printed forms shall be issued at the appropriate payment in accordance with subline 4. Form issued instead of lost forms The form issued instead of lost forms that have been declared out of date and invalid shall bear the words in the upper right corner of all files of such forms in red ink DUPLICATE INSTEAD OF FORM Serial Number..... It is also worth mentioning that the govt. members who will effect this notification must be effective, the benefits of this notification must be available in real terms to dealers registered. _____ written by J S Bedi Advocate 5/13, Central Town, Achter Ajit Samachar Jalandhar-144001.
